Introduction

Have you ever told a little white lie that keeps spiralling out of control?

Comprehension

Read 2 Samuel 11:1

Kings are meant to fight with their armies. What does David do instead?

Was this the right thing to do?

David sinned in verses 2-5. Was he a perfect king?

David tried to cover up his sin in verses 6-13. It didn't work. Was this the right thing to do?

Read 2 Samuel 11:14-17

Uriah was innocent, but David wanted to kill Uriah to cover his own sin.

Did David do the right thing?

Was he a perfect king?

Understanding

2 Samuel 11:27 says – 'But the thing David had done displeased the Lord.'

Was David successful in covering up his sin?

Was David a perfect king?

Could David hide anything from God?

Can we hide anything from God?

Read Matthew 3:16-17

Who always pleased God?

Who was the perfect king?

Did he sin?

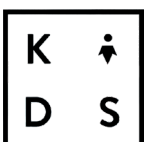

Application

What has Jesus done that means we don't have to try and cover our sin?

What can we do instead?

Will he forgive us?

David wasn't a perfect King. His desire and his sin led to more and more sin. David should have said no, said sorry to God and sought his forgiveness. Instead he tried to cover it up.
